JIGYASA 2.0

ABOUT THE ORGANISERS:

K.L.E. Society's Law College, Bengaluru was established in 1975 under the umbrella of Karnataka Lingayat Education Society and has been conceived as a nursery and training ground for those seeking to enter the legal profession. It is recognised by the Bar Council of India and is affiliated to the Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi. K.L.E Society's Law College, Bengaluru is ranked as one of the top law colleges across the country by the leading national media houses.

ABOUT “JIGYASA 2.0” :

Spreading Constitutional literacy gains impetus especially on lines of it being capable of countering ignorance and misinformation in the wake of the pandemic COVID -19 taking the world by storm. It has also led to the raising of questions on an array of issues relating to Constitutional Law ranging from whether surveillance via drones affect privacy rights to the question of whether violation of Human Rights in the form of inequitable distribution of food, domestic violence, etc stands committed making it all the more pertinent to consider the Constitution of India as not merely a holy book but as a functional manual, the knowledge of which stands indispensable.

The awe invoking aspect of our governing charter remains that it goes beyond being an agglomeration of legal tradition and is continually endeavouring to preserve principles inherent whilst leaving room to accommodate the modern day exigencies thereby making its scope and outreach, ever broadening...

As you may know, JIGYASA translates to 'Inquisitiveness'. So, get your Jigyasa spiking to become a COVID Conqueror this season by grabbing attractive bounties!!
